NEW: Parental Rights Webinar

FAIR

On Wednesday, November 17th from 8:00 to 9:30pm EST, join FAIR and a panel of experts as we discuss current parents' rights issues in public and private schools.

Some of the questions that will be addressed are:

- What rights do parents have when advocating for their children?
- What can parents do to effect change in schools?
- What happens when parents speak up?

Panelists include former Acting Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights and Deputy General Counsel in the US Department of Education Candice Jackson, co-founder and co-president of PLACE NYC Yiatin Chu, and president of Social Impact Strategies Mona Davids. The discussion will be moderated by FAIR Advisor and Vice-President of PLACE NYC Maud Maron.
